The Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport in Hong Kong (CILTHK)

The Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport (CILT) is the leading professional body associated with logistics and transport. Our vision is 'to be recognised as the first choice professional body for Supply Chain, Logistics and Transport'. Enabling growth within the profession, professional development, reputation and membership.

The Chartered Institute of Transport is an internationally recognised institution founded in 1919 in United Kingdom; and the Hong Kong Branch was first set up in 1968. The local chapter was upgraded to Territorial Organisation (formerly named as National Council) status in 1991 and was renamed as the Chartered Institute of Logistics and Transport in Hong Kong in 2001. Since its establishment, CILTHK has constantly strived to achieve its mission in promoting the study of the science and art of logistics and transport, to cooperating with the educational sector and other professional institutions with the objective of raising standards, to fostering investigation and research into the development and improvement of logistics and transport by every practical means. For further information, please contact Mr. Roger CHAN of CILTHK at 2866-6336, fax at 2866-6118 or email to info@cilt.org.hk.
